CU Chili Bowl 2010

Calling all Chefs!

Saturday, Feb. 6, 2010
6:30 p.m.
Mauricetown Fire Hall

Dear Dawn,

CU's annual Chili Bowl Dinner is one of our most looked-forward-to events! Last year was a sold-out crowd--over 200 people participated and over 80 volunteers were involved. With over 23 different chilis, and a huge variety of auction items, it certainly was a high-energy event!

We are looking for Chili Chefs--so whether you make a family style chili, or a mean, spicy pot of chili, from veggie to beef to seafood or venison, we'd love to have you join our esteemed Chili Chefs! If you'd like to contribute a Chili to the event, contact Renee at rbrecht.cumaurice@yahoo.com or 856 305-3238.

This year's event promises exciting, so be sure to get your tickets now! It's the perfect way to end a day of birding at the Cumberland County Winter Eagle Festival.

CU also has a display booth at the firehall during the Eagle festival. If you are available to represent CU for a couple of hours, please contact me--we're looking for both past volunteers and new volunteers for this activity.

Date: Saturday, February 6, 2010
Time: 6:30 p.m.
Where: Mauricetown Firehall, Noble Street, Mauricetown, NJ

Tickets are $20 per person.

To make reservations, RSVP to rbrecht.cumaurice@yahoo.com and mail your check payable to:
