Cumberland County Open Space Meetings

Union Lake

Dear Jane,

The Cumberland County Department of Planning and Development is currently assessing the open space situation within and around the County in order to propose possible roles for the County in the provision of open space and recreation.

A series of public meetings was held in June to solicit your ideas and input for greenways, critical sites, and such.

A random telephone survey was also conducted to collect statistically valid response to questions involving open space and recreation. For those who were not contacted by telephone, we urge you to take the survey online to let the County know how important open space is to you.

I have been participating on the advisory committee at the County Planning Board and we have been reviewing the responses of from the public. This is an opportunity to let county officials know your feelings on public spaces like natural areas, lakes, parks, wildlife management areas, ball fields etc. I encourage you will let your opinion be heard and take the survey here.

There will be a series of meetings for the public to present the data that has been gathered.

All meetings will begin at 7:00 p.m.

Nov 3, 2010 - Vineland: Beth Israel Synagogue, 1015 E. Park Avenue
Nov 4, 2010 - Bridgeton: Public Library, 150 E. Commerce Street, and Nov 9, 2010 - Millville: Riverfront Renaissance Center for the Arts, 22 N. High Street.

We hope you will consider attending the meeting closest to you and share your concerns for our open space.

Sincerely,

Jane Morton Galetto
