Various newspaper clippings. Many of the clips were discovered in the VERTICAL FILES of Cumberland County's libraries and historical societies. Where available, the publication and the date are noted. However, many are yellowing, hand-cut articles where publication and date are not always noted. (And on a recent check, some of those files are being eliminated because they are becoming unwieldy.)

Ramblin' Round - Copies of many of Virgil S. Johnson's columns have been filed in the vertical files. Many of them, published in the Millville and Bridgeton newspapers, bring to life the history and daily life of Cumberland County, NJ.

Cumberland County Now & Then - Several of George Loper's columns have been filed in the vertical files. Many of them, published in the Millville and Bridgeton newspapers, bring to life the history and daily life of Cumberland County, NJ.

Maurice River Pilot - Several fragile pages of this weekly newspaper (dated August 11, 1916) were stored by the Mauricetown Historical Society and a copy of the 1980 Commemorative Issue was found in a vertical file.

South Jersey Magazine - Articles published in the venerable magazine provided background and insight into Cumberland County.

MAPS

Map of Cumberland County. A compilation of 1691 Byerley & Dorchester Surveys Burlington, NJ Library: M. Folio 15 April, May, June 1691

Map of Cumberland County From actual surveys by S.N. & F.W. Beers (L.B. Lake & C.S. Warner) Pomeroy Publisher, Minor St., Phila, PA 1862 (On wall at Lummis Library)

Sections of Cumberland County Charles Hartman compilation map: No. 7, 1974. Hartman hand wrote on the map that he compiled information from 3 copies of David Kinsey's maps (Kinsey was a surveyor and his work is dated 1831) Hartman noted that there were just a few discrepancies among these maps, but doesn't note what those were.

Port Elizabeth - Map compiled by Chas. S. Hartman 1950
