

Sarah Blom Krause
June 27, 2012

The passing of Sarah Blom Krause marked the loss of our oldest member, and possibly one of our sharpest! She was nearly 102 years old and active up 'til her last breath. Sarah was a member of CU for nearly a fourth of her life. She was a 1932 graduate of Temple University with a degree in musicology, and was a devoted member of her synagogue where her musical talents were legendary. On the board of Newcomb Hospital, she was active in Red Cross and also served as president of the Hebrew Women's Benevolent Association, of which her mother and grandmother were founding members. Her passing makes her younger husband Ted our oldest member. And please note that he goes to his office each day and continues to give excellent advice on insurance. We know Ted really misses his Sarah.
